

Wednesday, February 5	Data Analysis: Organizing and Sorting Data. What does it all mean?  Please bring data and data analysis questions to class and come prepared to work together.
Wednesday, February 12	Analyzing, Presenting, and Visualizing Your Data/Effectively Presenting Your Findings  Thinking about Recommendations and next steps
Wednesday, February 19	No Class meeting  Work on Findings and Analysis Individual meetings with professor(s) as needed  Due: Draft findings section due to your peer reviewers. Peer reviews will be due, posted on Moodle, on 2/26
Wednesday, February 26	No Class meeting  Due: Peer reviews on Findings and Analysis due to authors (and posted to Moodle)  Work on Findings and Analysis
Wednesday, March 4	No Class Meeting  Continue work on Findings and Analysis Develop data conclusions Begin developing draft recommendations
Friday, March 6	Due: Full Draft of 2 nd half of paper due: Data/Findings; Analysis Data conclusions Draft recommendations  Professor provides feedback by Monday, March 16.
Week of March 9 13	SPRING BREAK
Wednesday, March 18	Presenting your work.

- 1) Progress Report/Spring Workplan; 2) Findings Section; 3) Final Comps Paper
- Public presentation of comps (20%)

Distinction on Comps

The professor(s) teaching the comps courses (in consultation with other UEP faculty) will read and evaluate each comps project. Students will receive one of the following:

- 1) P65sf1 0 n1095.2BT/F1 12 Tf1 0 0 1 126.02 666.82 Tm0 g0 G[( )] TJETQEMC /P 0 G[0078]TJETQP

Marianne Frapwell, the Survivor Advocate, can advise you confidentially as can counselors at Emmons Wellness Center and Rev. Susan Young, Director of the Office of Religious & Spiritual Life. You can also contact counselors at the 24/7 Hotline 323-341

- Consistent with Occidental College's commitment to creating an academic community that is respectful of and welcoming to persons of differing backgrounds, we believe that students should be excused from class for reasons of faith and conscience without academic consequence. While it is not feasible to schedule coursework around all days of conviction for a class as a whole, faculty will honor requests from individual students to reschedule coursework, to be absent from classes that conflict with the identified days. Information about this process is available on the ORSL website: <https://www.oxy.edu/office-religious-spiritual-life>